

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION and PASTORAL COUNSELING

COST: Sliding scale beginning at $25 per session.

Individuals whose means enable them to offer more would be appreciated. There is also a fund to assist those for whom the fee is a hardship.

Spiritual Direction and Pastoral Counseling differ. Spiritual Direction involves meeting monthly with a trained spiritual director to look more closely at what is happening in one's life as it relates to one's relationship with God. Pastoral Counseling in effect does the same with the addition (over) of psychological input. Both Spiritual Direction and Pastoral Counseling are offered on an ongoing basis at the Retreat Center.

THIS YEAR'S THEME:

"MAKE IT KNOWN!"

The 2017 season of retreats will focus on the theme: "Make it Known!" It is taken directly from the message of Our Lady. Mary echoed a sense of renewed hope and reconciliation to a broken, bruised, and polarized world - much like we see today. Pope Francis has called the Christian faithful to "embark upon a new chapter of evangelization marked by the joy of the Gospel." Mary was drawing attention to her Son Jesus who is the true source of Joy, the Good News, the messenger of hope, healing and reconciliation in our fragile world. Having encountered and experienced God's love, forgiveness and peace, we are given a 'new horizon and a decisive direction' in life. At our days of prayer and retreats we will explore this theme to help us become effective evangelizers ourselves. We will examine some of the pillars of evangelization during these times of prayer and reflection. I invite everyone to another wonderful year of grace at La Salette Retreat and Conference Center.

"Come away and rest a while in God's peace!"

RETREATS

What is the difference between a Directed Retreat, a Guided Retreat, and a Private Retreat?

Directed Retreats are for those who desire a one on one experience with a director where the retreatant and the director explore and notice where God is acting in the retreatant's life. The retreatant and the director meet each day as they try to be sensitive and responsive to where the retreatant is in his/her journey with God. The retreat is held in complete silence.

Guided Retreats are programs which include facilitators who will give two or more presentations on a particular theme over the course of three to six days.

Private Retreats are retreats that are undertaken by individuals at any time with or without a spiritual director.
